Airbase HIGH DEFINITION AIRBRUSH MAKE-UP

www.bridalbeauty.co.uk

With over 20 years experience, my work has varied from general hairdressing to television make-up, but my real passion is bridal hair and make-up.

Most of my weddings are in the South East of England but I've also travelled to Spain, Italy, Sardinia and Fiji, as well as other parts of the UK, to prepare brides for their special day.

I hope I have the opportunity to create your perfect look for your special day.

You can find out more information about me and all of the services available by visiting my website.
